Wolfe Family Crest

This overrides all of the speculation that follows.

George Franklin Wolfe 1812-1885 had several children two of whom were Mila "Milly" Wolfe 1838-
and Manson Elijah Wolfe 1842-1917

Manson Elijah Wolfe had a daughter named Nancy E. Wolfe 1877-1960 who married Benjamin Priest Moore 1865-1937
Two of their daughters were Mary Bernice 1913-2006
and
Juanita R 1915-2008

After their husbands died they lived together west of White Rock Lake before you get to Highway 75. These two women were the daughters of James Wolfe's first cousin=Nancy E. Wolfe Moore. He was their second cousin and they all lived around each other in or near Grayson, Collin and Denton Counties.

Ernest Smith, who is our 9th cousin via Manson Wolfe and has been researching the family since the 1960s, spoke and met with them several times and they said the following.

James Wolfe is the illegitimate son of Mila Wolfe-the daughter of George Franklin Wolfe and their great-aunt = sister of their grandfather, Manson Elijah Wolfe.

In the 1900 and 1910 U.S. Census, Rebecca Coffey was asked how many children she had and she replied 7 and 3 are still alive. The three that were still alive were from her marriage to Nathan Perry Dalton. All children with Adam Wolfe, Jr.-including James A Wolfe-were dead.

The Children of George Franklin Wolfe

Compiled By Ernest W. Smith
from Ancestry.com

Wolfe history written in the 1890's and oral family history lists the children of Jane and George Franklin Wolfe as:

Emanuel, Gideon, Mila, Manson, Wiley, and Jeptha. Manson Wolfe's daughter, Nancy Elizabeth bares witness that this is the complete and only list of the children of Jane and George Franklin Wolfe.

Others have added these extra children to the family of George Franklin Wolfe:

Mariah, Nancy, Lily, James, George W. and Thomas G.

Mariah, Lily, and Nancy:

A close look at the original 1850 Census will reveal the mistake of the transcriber of the names Emanuel and Wiley as Mariah and Lily. Manson is also misnamed as Nancy in the 1850 census; this explains him missing in the 1850 census, and Nancy missing in the other census.

James:

James Wolfe is in the 1870 census of Hancock County with the family of George F. Wolfe. Some individuals have him as George F.'s son. However known family history does not list him as such. His family was always told that James was illegitimate. His family History reveals that he believed that his name should have been Coffee. Some individuals believe that he was the son of Mila (WOLFE) and William Marion Coffee who were married when James was 19 years old. However, William could not be the father of James as he was only 6 years old when James was born. James would have been born when Mila was 17 years old, not married and living at home in 1855. The 1870 census lists Mila still living at home.

SPECULATIONS and Aunt Lizzie Dictations

Could Roland be his father's last name rather than his middle name. Census has him as James W Wolf, James Wolf, Jim Wolf, James Wolfe 1910 Census show him living in Tennessee. 1920 Census show him living in Van Alstyne, TX

There seem to be three possibilities about "our" James Wolfe

1. Wolfe was his step-father's name or
2. Wolfe was his mother's maiden name or
3. Coffee was his mother's maiden name

We are not sure which story is the correct one. Number 1 is the most probable from the Aunt Lizzie set of papers found in her trunk after her death. But it is also possible that this Wolfe who "took him in" was actually his grandfather George Franklin Wolfe who was caring for him as a grandson rather than as a son.

In other words 1. would be a Wolfe who took him in but not a step-father. This also would match with the Aunt Lizzie papers.

Another way at looking at "our " James Wolfe is in above number 1. his father is Coffee
in above number 2. his father is Coffee
in above number 3. his father is Unknown Name

Grandpa Wolfe-James Roland Wolfe?-only child at that time out of wedlock. The man wouldn't marry the mother. (Other story says he died on the job of delivering mail). She had two daughter. (Were they born before or after James Wolfe?). Our name should have been Coffee.

The following sounds too muck like the story about his wife and sister-in-law.

In this version it's about his two sisters, one of whom just happens to have the same name as his sister-in-law, and just happens to also marry a Holt. I suspect that this story is also about his wife and sister-in-law.

James Wolfe-his mother and father were fishing. A boat came by and they gave his two sisters (or are they half-sisters) away. One was named Betty. The other name is unknown. Betty Holt got back with the family. James Wolfe was born out of wedlock. His mother was a Coffee.

Ancestors of Thelma Ruby WOLFE

She married a man named Wolfe and he took the Wolfe name.

According to Alice Stewart his birthyear is 1858. According to Judith Wolfe his birthyear is 1855-1857. According to Joyce Lay his birthyear is 1855. If one looks at the 1900 U.S. Census one sees that he is 42 years old. It also shows that 1854 was written as birth year but then the 4 was overwritten with an 8 making the birthyear 1858. His death certificate given by his son George shows his birthyear to be 1858 also.

Coffee can also be spelled Coffie or Coffey.

It seems that there may have been three James Wolfes. Adam Jr and Rebecca Coffee had one born in 1854+-. Claiborne Greenberry Wolfe and Hannah Malicoat had one born in 1857+-. And then there was the James Wolfe that stayed with George Franklin Wolfe who was born 1854 +-. It is possible that this is Miley Wolfe's son. It is also possible that it is one of the other Jameses-such as Claiborne Wolfe's son. In 1870 census there was a James Wolfe born +- 1854 staying with Mary Wolfe or William Wolfe. This James may be Claiborne Wolfe's son since he is the only son missing from multi-widow Hannah Malicoat Wolfe Dawson's family as per 1870 census. It is another possibility that there are only two James Wolfes. Adam's son and "the other" James Wolfe. Which one is our James Wolfe is hard to tell.

If we could trust census info I would bank on the Claiborne Wolfe choice because the age is a closer fit. But there is a lot of evidence indicating that the James Wolfe staying with Claiborne was really Mila Wolfe's son and was just visiting.

Adam Wolfe, Jr. does have a Coffey connection via his wife. Rebecca. but is it the right connection and do either of his other two children have "hidden" Coffey connections--not likely. And such connections would be required to match what we think Aunt Lizzie was saying.

As I said in the beginning. Ernest Smith's research renders much of the above information and speculation meaningless.

General Notes: 1900 Census puts her in Grainger County, TN
1910 Census puts her in Hazelwood, Webster, Missouri which is about 50 miles east of Springfield, MO and SW of St. Louis

Her first name is spelled Mila, Miley, Milly and last name Wolfe and Wolf

Another argument-which is biological-for her being James Wolfe's mother is that her first child with her husband, William Marion Coffee, occurred when she was 35 years. Even now the chances of having a first child at or over 35 are greatly reduced. If James was her first child, the child born to her when she was 35 would be her second and this is biologically more likely---especially in the 19th century without medical intervention.

Biographical Profile of John Jacob Wolfe

Smith John Jacob Wolfe was born on Dec. 27, 1751 in York, York Co, PA. to parents, John Nicholas and Maria Elizabeth (BRESSLER) Wolfe. He was christened on April 26, 1752 in Christ Lutheran Church, York, PA. He died in Jan. 1811 in Russell County, Virginia. He was buried in Russell County, Virginia. Place of Death and burial: on Manville road just North of Gate City in Scott County, Virginia. He was the first of five known children, three boys and two girls, which include: Charles, born 1755; George, born 1765; Barbara and Mary, birth unknown. John was married to the former Catherine Bare about 1778. At the time of their marriage, he was living about 25 miles north of Winchester in Berkeley County, (West) Virginia. Both John and Catherine were uneducated, and neither could read nor write. From this union there were 10 children born, 6 boys and 4 girls. They are as follows Henry, born Jan. 14, 1779; John, born Mar. 27, 1781; Catherine, born Oct. 03, 1782; Adam, born Sept. 03. 1784; George, born Oct. 08, 1786; Hannah, born July 08, 1794 and Jacob, born July 27, 1796. Shortly after his marriage to Catherine, John was either a witness or a participant in the violent murder of a Mr. Stunn of Berkeley Co. WVA in 1788. The murder took place 4 months after John Wolfe married Catherine. The murderer was captured and hanged, but John became so frightened, that he left his wife while she was pregnant with their first child Henry, and fled to Georgia and South Carolina. John was gone for about a year and a half before he returned. Upon his return, he immediately took Catherine and his young son Henry to North Carolina. In the spring of 1788, the family moved to a farm on the south side of the North Fork of the Holston River. Even though they were extremely poor, John managed to buy the 50 acres on which he was living. The purchase was made on Dec. 06, 1790, from John Kearns. Six years later on Nov. 14, 1796, John purchased an additional 150 acres from Dennis Coudry. This farm was located at the junction of the river with the Tennessee state line about four miles from Gate City. John Wolfe was a strict, hardworking, and careful farmer, and by 1806, he had accumulated a sizeable estate worth about $3,000.00. He also peddled whiskey in the Clinch River settlements, and may have traded horses in Kentucky. As the years passed John's mental condition deteriorated. He became increasingly depressed from the emotional pressure he felt from the murder incident years before. He would feel these bouts of depression coming on, and would warn his family to stay away from him. As John's emotional state worsened, he became increasingly violent. He progressed from quarreling, to threats of physical violence upon his family. As family life became more difficult, Catherine sent Hannah to live with her Aunt Mary Pope, and Adam to live with his Uncle Charles Wolfe in Tennessee. Shortly afterwards, John sold his farm and took his youngest son, Jacob, to the Moravian settlement near Winston-Salem, North Carolina. After about one year had lapsed, John returned home. John's mental condition got continually worse, and about a year after returning home, he then moved into the home of Jacob Peters where he lived for about 2 years. About this time, John bought 250 acres on Copper Creek in Russell County, Virginia. The years of emotional trauma came to a climax when John hanged himself there in the month of January 1811. Published History of John Jacob Wolfe (unknown author) JOHN JACOB WOLFE Sr. was born on Dec. 27, 1751 in York, York Co, PA. He was christened on April 26, 1752 in Christ Lutheran Church, York, PA. He died in Jan. 1811 in Russell County, Virginia. He was buried in Russell County, Virginia. He has reference number 84. Place of Death and burial on Manville road just North of Gate City in Scott County, Virginia. Christening record from LDS Ordinances discovered by Michael Wolfe in 1997. It gave his middle name (Jacob) and parents as John Nicholas Wolf and Maria Elizabeth. The christening date matches his known birth year of 1752, and the name Nicholas matches Nicholas Wolfe who lived in Sullivan Co near Mary and Barbara in the late 1700s. There is still considerable speculation that this is the correct match. The LDS Ordinances were Baptized 6/8/1977 Provo, Endowed 8/12/1977 Provo, and Sealed to Parents 8/31/1977 Provo. He received a land grant on the south side of the North Fork, Holston River, in April 1789. It was 25 acres and bounded on three sides by the river. The land grant was No 14269 and joined William Linches entry. (Surveyors Entry Book 1, p. 146; a similar Surveyors Entry Book 1, p. 86; and Land Grants Book 1, all in Washington Co, VA) Children & birth dates from the Wolfe vs. Wolfe Court Case. They were reported to be from the family Bible in the possession of Henry Wolfe. On 2/13/1806 he sold the family farm and 4 slaves to John Weaver for $1300. The property consisted of three tracts of land amounting to 600 acres. In the Wolfe vs. Wolfe case, it was determined that the land was worth $3000 exclusive of the slaves which were valued at $1500. The slaves were a man, his wife and 2 daughters. After the sale, he went to live with the Moravians in NC. Henry and John threatened to take Weaver to court, and he agreed to sell the land to them for $900, but he kept the slaves. On 10/17/1816, the other children initiated the Superior Court of Chancery case in Wytheville, VA. The Wolfe vs. Wolfe case was not settled until 5/13/1822. The courts ruled that John Wolfe had intended to defraud his wife and children when he sold the property, and that the others had a right to their shares. After a short while in NC, John Wolfe came back to Scott Co and bought a small farm on Copper Creek. Eventually, he convinced his wife Catherine to live with him again and she was living with him when he took his life. The court records indicate that he assisted with a murder in Berkley Co, WV, and may have been the murderer. He said that was the major cause of his behavior, according to testimony from his wife, and that was the reason he took his life. He apparently built a sizable amount of wealth by making and selling various alcoholic beverages. He operated a still even when he lived for a year with Jacob Peters after returning from NC. After the murder in Berkley Co, WV, John fled to SC and GA. After about 12-18 months, he returned and immediately took his family to NC where he resided a few years before settling on the North Fork of the Holston River in present day Scott Co, VA. Some references indicate that he had lived with the Moravians at some time (maybe as a child?). (from Wolfe vs. Wolfe trial.) They settled on the North Fork of the Holston the spring before Hannah was born. (from Caty Wolfe's testimony in the Wolfe vs Wolfe trial.) DEATH: He hanged himself after several very difficult and depressing years. He is buried in the Lane-Wisley Cemetery GC#28 just to the right of the Mannville Road about 1-2 miles past the Courthouse in Gate City. There is a huge tree at the head of his grave. According to family legends, family members planted either a seed or small tree from Tennessee or Kentucky to mark the grave. The type of tree has not been identified to my knowledge. The legend says that it is so hard that an ax will bounce off it. Inspection of the tree shows that it is in the white oak family, but seems to be different than other white oaks in this area. Apparently, the grave site is on the land owned by the Wolfe family at the time of his death, and some legends say that it was Abraham Lane's farm. The first deed that has been found for the land was when it was sold by John Wolfe Jr. in 1849.
